TOWN OF GRIFTON METERING AND BILLING POLICY

Effective July 1, 2019

1.0 Meter Reading, Billing and Payment Responsibility

Meters shall be read and statements of charges for water and other services shall be rendered at regular intervals as determined by the Town. Typically, the meters are read in the middle of the month on a monthly basis.

If a customer's bill is NOT paid by the due date which is the 15th of month, unless such date is on a weekend, in such case the bill would be due on the following Monday. If payment is NOT received by the due date, a $ 15.00 late fee will be assessed to your account.

If a customer's bill does NOT have a zero balance by the cutoff date indicated on the bill, the customer's water shall be cut off for nonpayment and a $ 25.00 cut-off fee added to the bill.

If the customer has NOT made payment in full by the 15th of the following month after being cut off for non-payment, the account will be closed and the deposit applied.

Once cut off, payment must be made in full with cash or money order. NO CHECKS

Failure to receive a bill will not release a customer from payment obligation or late fees.

All Town Water account balances are subject to collections and/or reporting to credit agencies and submittal to the Department of revenue.

2.0 Deposit/ Extensions

There will be a $ 200.00 deposit required to open a utility account.

There will NOT be any payment extensions allowed on a delinquent account.

3.0 Adjustments of Bills

Only adjustments for sewer will be allowed under this Adjustment Policy. Except for an error in meter reading or billing or for meter inaccuracy as determined by Town testing, the Town will not be obligated to make adjustments to any bill for sewer. When excessive meter registration is caused by broken or leaking water service by pipes on the customer's premises, without the customer's knowledge, the Town has its option to may make an adjustment to the bill. After repairs have been made to the customer's premises, upon proof of repair, the Town may approve billing adjustment for the billing period affected. No more than one adjustment will be allowed during a 12 month period. The basis of an adjustment granted shall be an allowance for the portion of excess over normal usage under similar operating conditions, as determined by the Town.

4.0 Turn-On/Turn off – Liability Disclaimer

The Town shall not be liable for any loss or damage to persons or property that may result from the turn-on or turn-off of the water service or from the service being left on when the premises is unoccupied.

Indoor Tips

- Wash only full loads in the clothes washer and dishwasher, each load can use over 20 gallons of water
- Avoid using your toilet as a waste basket or ashtray, each flush can use over 5 gallons of water
- Try to take shorter showers and avoid bathes if possible, a bath can use over 30 gallons of water
- Install faucet aerators on faucets and low flow shower heads, they are easy to install and inexpensive
- Place a 2 liter bottle filled with water in the tank of your toilet, this will save about half a gallon of water each flush
- Place 10 drops of food coloring in your toilet tank, if after 15 minutes there is any in the bowl your tank has a leak which is wasting water
- Turn off faucets while shaving, brushing teeth, or preparing food

Outdoor Tips

- Catch water from your downspout and use it for outdoor watering
- Water your lawn as little as possible, grass only requires an inch of rain a week, so if it rains that much it doesn't need to be watered
- Water during the early morning or evening, this will reduce the strain on the water system and evaporation
- Raise the blade of your mower to at least 3 inches, taller blades of grass require less water
- Plant more shrubs and ground cover, they require less water and maintenance
- Limit car washing, when you do, use a bucket instead of a hose

The Town of Grifton, like many communities across the state, realizes water is a valuable natural resource that we can protect. Water conservation is not only easy but also economical and it improves the reliability of your water system. Try it and watch your utility bill go down! See the display in Town Hall for more tips.

14 items you shouldn't toss in the recycling bin

Bottom of Form

Recycling one ton of paper saves enough energy to power the average home for six months, saves 7,000 gallons of water and massively reduces greenhouse gas emissions. Recycling a single aluminum can saves enough energy to power a television for two hours, a computer for three hours or a 14-watt CFL light bulb for 20 hours. Recycling is obviously important, and is something everyone can do without much effort. But there are some things that simply cannot be recycled, and tossing them into the recycling bin can create unnecessary work for the good folks at your local waste management center.

Learn about some of the most common culprits that mistakenly end up in the recycling bin so that you can reduce, reuse and recycle responsibly.

1. Plastic Bags

Actually, plastic bags can be recycled; they just require a different process from other plastic recyclables. Rather than tossing plastic bags, wraps, films or bubble wrap into your home recycling bin, find a local drop-off location here. Many grocery and retail stores have boxes near the front of the store where you can stuff those bags and keep them out of landfills. Better yet, switch to reusable bags and nix the plastic ones altogether!

2. Clothes Hangers

Whether they're made of wire or plastic, many recycling centers will not accept clothes hangers because they can jam the machinery. If you have too many hangers, most dry cleaners will gladly accept the wire version. Check with your favorite thrift store to see if they will accept your plastic hangers.

3. Styrofoam

Technically known as expanded polystyrene (EPS), this is another iffy material. You can check with your local waste management office to see if they accept EPS, as some do. If not, try to find a way to reuse it, or look for a recycling center near you that will accept it.

4. Mixed-Grade Paper

Paper has only so many "lives" before it is too degraded to be recycled. Shredding paper uses up one of those lives and makes it more difficult to recycle along with high-grade paper. Similarly, items made of recycled paper may not be recyclable. Check with your local recycling center to find out whether they can accept these items.

5. Paper Towels

There are multiple reasons why you should not toss paper towels, napkins, tissues and similar items into your recycle bin. First, these paper products are typically created from paper that has been through the recycling process several times and is no longer usable. In addition, they often contain substances that could ruin other recyclables, such as grease and food.

6. Takeout Containers

While they may be comprised of sturdy, reusable cardboard or plastic No. 1 (the same as soda bottles), pizza boxes, Chinese food containers and other hot food packages cannot be recycled. This is because of the food and grease that remain, breeding bacteria and contaminating other recyclables.

6. Takeout Containers

While they may be comprised of sturdy, reusable cardboard or plastic No. 1 (the same as soda bottles), pizza boxes, Chinese food containers and other hot food packages cannot be recycled. This is because of the food and grease that remain, breeding bacteria and contaminating other recyclables.

7. Milk Cartons And Juice Boxes

Aseptic cartons, such as those used to contain milk, juice, coconut water and wine, among other liquids, are made using a combination of paper, polyethylene and aluminum foil. Because of this, many recycling centers are unable to recycle them.

8. Plastic Toys

Many children's playthings are primarily plastic, but also contain other elements - such as metal or plastic resin - which makes them nearly impossible to recycle. Even those that are 100 percent plastic can have parts and shapes that might jam machinery. Consider donating unbroken toys or those that can be repaired to your favorite thrift store instead.

9. Gift Wrap

Bows are made of a plastic-paper composite that cannot be recycled. Keep and reuse them or give them up altogether. Wrapping paper can be recycled, but only if it does not have any glitter, flocking or other embellishments on it.

10. Glass Bakeware

Heat-resistant glass bakeware cannot be recycled because of the process used to create it. Since the glass has been heat-treated to make it oven-, microwave- and dishwasher-safe, it will not melt with ordinary glass during recycling.

11. Foil Chip Bags

Most packages for potato chips, some snack cakes and other munchies are made from aluminum laminated with polypropylene, which makes them difficult to recycle. However, you can mail certain snack bags to Terracycle, which will recycle them and give you rewards.

12. To-Go Cups

It's just a little paper cup; there should be no problem with tossing it in the recycling bin, right? Unfortunately, no. Because they're often laminated with plastic or polyethylene to make them waterproof, most recycling centers are unable to process coffee and other to-go cups. Britain may even place an added fee on the cups to encourage patrons to tote reusable cups instead.

13. Plastic Utensils

The rigid plastic used to make disposable forks, knives, spoons and sporks is not recyclable. Manufacturers use a variety of materials and do not label individual utensils. Their shapes make them difficult to bale, as well.

14. Diapers

Although it seems this should go without saying, disposable diapers (soiled or clean) should not be dropped in the recycling bin. Unfortunately, they arrive at local recycling centers in mass amounts on a daily basis. Dump them in the trash or switch to cloth.
